want of clearance by the Union Government;

(b) the cost of escalations on account of the delay;

(c) the reasons for delay in clearance; and

(d) the steps proposed to give early clearance to the projects?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PROGRAMME IMPLEMENTATION (SHRI BIREN SINGH ENGTI): (a), (c) and (d) Statement in respect of Projects of West Bengal pending clearance as in January, 1988 in respect of projects of Ministry of Agriculture and as of August-October, 1987 in respect of others is placed on the Table of the House. [See Appendix CXLV, Annexure No. 86].

(b) Escalation in the cost of projects is causey by multiplicity of factors which operate simultaneously. Hence it may not be possible to isolate the impact of the delay in the clearance of projects on the cost of the projects.

People Living below the Poverty Line

2330. SIIEI RAMNARAYAN GO. SWAMI: Will the Minister of PLANNING be pleased to state;

(a) what i$_s$ the number of people living below the poverty line in the country, the State-wise details thereof; and

(b) the steps taken or proposed to be taken by Government to improve their economic condition?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PROGRAMME IMPLEMENTATION (SHRI BIREN SINGH ENGTI): (a) According to latest estimates of person$_s$ living below poverty line for the year 1983-84, which are based on the 38th round of National Sample Survey Organisation on Household Consumer Expenditure, 2710.0 lakhs persons were below the poverty line in the country. A statement indicating the State-wise num-bei of person$_s$ below poverty line in 1983-84 is enclosed (See Appendix CXLV, Annexure No. 87].

(b) Removal of poverty remains the central concern of planning in India. While the planned development of the economy helps in 1m-prov\ingr$job opportunities, income levels and living conditions of all sections of society, policies and programmes, in addition, have been devised to directly attack the problem of poverty. Accordingly, the Sixth Five Year Plan bad out a two pronged strategy to deal with the problem of poverty. Emphasis was laid, on accelerating the pace of agricultural development with the hope that would have a beneficial effect on raising standard of living of the poorer sections of the society. On the other hand it was decided to strengthen and expand the scope of beneficiary oriented anti-poverty programmes in rural areas. Consistent with this approach the Seventh Plan iay$_s$ emphasis on accelerated agricultural growth, inc-raesed proudctivity of rice in Eastern region, developing the potential of
